Sermon Text: Luke 16:1-9

The Dishonest Steward

* *

1   And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
2   And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
3   Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
4   I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5   So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6   And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
7   Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
8   And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.
9   And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.
