Sermon Text: Mark 14:1-9

Darkness And Light

Mark 14:1 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

:2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

:3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

:4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

:5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

:6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

:7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

:8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

:9 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
