Sermon Text: Song Of Solomon 5:15a

His Legs

*****

Song of Solomon 5:15a His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold.

The Legs Feed the Wolf

Hockey fans all over the world marvel at the 1980 Winter Olympics held in Lake Placid, N.Y., when the U.S.A hockey team defeated the heavily favored Russian team, and then went on to defeat Finland to win the gold medal.

The victory over the Russians has been called the Miracle on Ice. Coached by the famous University of Minnesota hockey coach, the late Herb Brooks, a bunch of college kids upset the Soviet Union's team, at that time the greatest hockey team in the world.

Herb drilled his team especially hard in order to get their legs in shape to play three full periods every game without letting up. His motto to his team was—"The legs feed the wolf, boys!"

The Legs Feed the Lion

This morning, perhaps we could modify Herb's saying to—The Legs Feed the Lion! Not only "a" lion. But "The Lion." The Lion of the Tribe of Judah—Jesus Christ. The picture here would be the Lion Bridegroom protecting his Bride by destroying her enemies. This is yet another illustration of the truth that the salvation of the Bride goes hand in hand with the complete destruction of her enemies.
